UNITED GRACE Rescues a Person in Distress off the Coast of Northwestern Africa

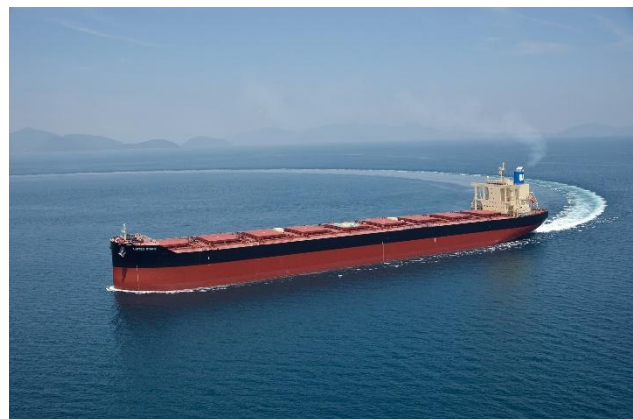

Our operated bulk carrier UNITED GRACE, sailing from Canada to China, received a request from the JRCC (Joint Rescue Coordination Center) to rescue shipwrecked persons off the coast of Mauritania in Northwestern Africa. The ship discovered a yacht with a broken mast in the area and successfully rescued one shipwrecked person.

The survivor was in stable condition, and in accordance with JRCC instructions, the survivor was transferred to the designated medical facility on the same day.
